Looking after his business

When you go away and want someone to mind the house, you plan well and invest in someone safe. We often need that. Who will monitor the alarm and keep an eye on the house?

Same with Jesus... the people of the gospel are the ones who look after his business while he is away! God invests in us. He wants us to do our best in minding his house. His community and Church are the people to whom he entrusts his life's work.

We spread the kingdom in simple ways every day – care, hospitality, work for justice, compassion, with the gifts and talents we have. He has given us the gifts – we are to use them in his service. We do our best and God, the architect, is continually building with us.

He is the extra presence around in his Spirit. So when we do things in his service, he is the inspirer. But he leaves a lot to us.

And then when in his service he feeds us. He works with us and for us. The slave/master relationship is turned upside down. People would never expect that the master would serve the meal – like at the washing of the feet. We are nourished and renewed.

There is a need now for volunteer help within the Church -we need it now and will in the future. Formation is needed for people who can hand on faith when the parish may be called on to do more, and to do what the Catholic school has done until now.

The kingdom is spread through the work of the Church, and we are this Church, this body of Christ. We are the true blessed sacraments of Jesus Christ.

Murder in the Missions - A True Story
By Jean Harrington (Published by Mercier Press)

This book tells the story of two Columban Missionaries, Fr Rufus Halley from Butlerstown - killed in attempted abduction in 2001, and Fr. Des Hartford from Dublin kidnapped in 1997 and released after twelve traumatic days in captivity. They worked in Christian/Muslim dialogue in a volatile environment in the southern Philippines.

THIS BOOK IS AVAILABLE IN THE PARISH

Community Care Tramore. All welcome

Wonderful news!

A diocesan family day will be held on Sunday 29th September at Mount Melleray. This is a result of the tremendous success of the day that was held last August in preparation for the World Meeting of Families.

More details will follow – but please save the date – Sunday 29th September 2pm to 5pm. It will be full of fun, including prayer time!

GDPR - General Data Protection Rules

As most of you are aware new Data Protection Rules have come into effect, and we at Holy Cross & Carbally Parish along with everyone else must comply with these rules.

There will be a number of changes to requests for Baptism, Confirmation and Marriage Certificates, coming into effect in the next few weeks and for general requests for information.

We would ask you to bear with us as we comply with these new rules and please understand that these changes are being made because they are now the law.

Irish Wheelchair Association will be holding their church gate collection on Saturday 17th & Sunday 18th August 2019. Your support would be gratefully appreciated
