MISSION SUNDAY 2012

The Celebration of World Mission Day has a very special meaning for the year 2012. A day Pope Benedict says "reaffirming the Church's desire to engage with greater courage and zeal in the mission to bring the Gospel to the very ends of the earth".

The number of those awaiting Christ is still immense today. The mission to the ends of the earth must be part of every Church's endeavour. The identity of the Church herself is constituted by faith in the Mystery of God who revealed himself in Christ to bring us salvation, and by the mission of witnessing and proclaiming Him to the world until He comes.

The concern to evangelize must never remain on the margins of the Church activity and of the personal life of Christians. Rather, it must strongly characterize it.

Faith is a gift that is given to us to be shared. It is a talent received so that it may bear fruit. It is a light that must never be hidden. It is the most important gift that has been given to us in our lives and which we can't keep ourselves.
