YEAR OF FAITH ²⁰¹²/₂₀₁₃

SHANE O'NEILL

While the joy of Easter fills our hearts, it is also sadly time to say goodbye to our diocesan seminarian, Shane O'Neill, who leaves us today to continue his pastoral year in Cork University Hospital next month. Shane has been with us in the parish since last September, and has gained valuable pastoral experience in our parish, by visiting our schools and homes of the sick, as well as leading us in prayer services throughout the year, and was with us on our parish trip to Rome and Assisi.

As Shane leaves us, we wish him well and will continue to pray for him at this time. All going well, Shane will be ordained a deacon in May next year, and we will look forward to welcoming him back to the parish to visit us at that time.

Please remember in your prayers.....

Music by Donna Roche

The Lord said to Saint Faustina.

"I protect, as a mother does a child, the souls that promote devotion to my mercy during their lifetime! and in the hour of their death, I will not be their judge, but their saviour .In that final hour the soul does not have anything in its defence save my Mercy, for justice will not reach it there. Speak to the whole world of My Mercy and Love. Let it know how incomprehensible it is. It is a sign of the approaching last days, after which the days of justice will come. While there is still time let them take refuge in the Fount of my Mercy". Amen.
