Lord, the world is thirsting
for living water.

So many people are content with water which, when
they drink it,
leaves them thirsty for more.

- in personal relationships they look for security and domination;
- in positions of authority they enjoy lording it over others;
- they sacrifice precious things for the trappings of power;
- compromise their principles for popularity.

Send them Jesus who will lead them to ask for another kind of water.

- trust in relationships;
- service in authority;
- sincerity and truth rather than power;
- integrity at whatever cost;

the kind of water which they will drink and need never be thirsty
again,

water that they do not have to go to a well for

because it comes from a spring inside them and wells up to eternal life..
