When asked how we should pray, Jesus teaches the Our Father

'Lord teach us to pray.' If someone asked this today of a faith leader, we might get a long list of possibilities based on different tastes, cultures and trends. Millions of books have been written on prayer, how to pray, what method, where, when, how to sit, what to wear, what attitude one should have, and so on. Yet here, Jesus gives his disciples a very direct response, actual words in a formula that they should recite.

In Jesus' time there were many rabbis who would have certain prayers for their followers to say, almost as a way of identifying their group. The Lord's prayer is the prayer of Jesus' disciples, so it is our prayer too. It is among the first prayers we learn as children. It is a prayer of identity for Christians. When we are in a moment of crisis, when all other words fail us, it is often the 'go-to' prayer.

After teaching the Lord's prayer, Jesus tells a story about a man whose friend goes to him at midnight looking for bread for another friend. It might appear to be a confusing story, but the emphasis is on the power of praying for another's need. In the early church and today, this is seen as the work of the people of God, the baptised: to pray for the world and the needs of others. Then we go beyond ourselves and our own interests, reaching out and opening up, rather than being closed in on ourselves.

Ask, and it will be given, you search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you.

Prayer for World Peace

We pray for the power to be gentle; the strength to be forgiving;
the patience to be understanding; and the endurance to accept the consequences of holding on to what we believe to be right.

May we put our trust in the power of good to overcome evil and the power of love to overcome hatred.

We pray for the vision to see and the faith to believe in a world emancipated from violence,
a new world where fear shall no longer lead men or women to commit injustice, nor selfishness make them bring suffering to others.

Help us to devote our whole life and thought and energy to the task of making peace, praying always for the inspiration and the power to fulfil the destiny for which we and all men and women were created.

Rosary at the Marian Terrace Grotto

Due to popular demand the rosary will be recited at the Grotto from Tuesday 23rd July at 7pm. (Each Tuesday)

Please join us as we pray for healing in family life, for the church in Waterford Diocese, our Bishop Phonsie and priests, especially the priests in our parish.

HOME INSTEAD SENIOR CARE, WATERFORD

It takes a special person to become a Home Instead CAREGiver. Working with older people in their homes can be challenging but, at the same time tremendously rewarding. Enjoy training, local office support, shifts that fit your lifestyle & a job that changes lives in your Community.

So whether you have a wealth of care giving experience or you're just starting out on your career as a CAREGiver, at Home Instead Waterford, we would be delighted to hear from you.

For further information visit: homeinstead.ie or phone 051-333966

Coffee Morning at the Guillamene

The Newtown and Guillamene Swimming Club committee have very generously offered to host this annual event in aid of Waterford Hospice in memory of our very dear friend Gerry Rush.

It will be held on Sunday 4th August at 10.30 am.

As usual your kind donations of edible treats and yummy goodies will be greatly accepted. This is a wonderful location for the coffee morning and we are delighted to accept their kind invitation to avail of their hospitality. We are looking forward to a very sociable coffee morning and we can expect a great atmosphere there to continue the fundraising this year for Waterford Hospice.

TRAMORE COMMUNITY CARE MEALS ON WHEELS

We urgently require kitchen helpers on Mondays, Wednesday and Saturdays between the hours of 11.45am to 1.15pm on a Month on/ Month off basis. If you can assist please call the Community Centre between 9am-11am, Monday to Friday and leave your contact details with Mandy Farrell.
