Three against two and two against three

Sadly, many people are no strangers to family feuds. In past generations, things like land and inheritance were major causes of family disagreements, causing parents to fall out with sons or daughters, or siblings to stop speaking for years. We may have heard other stories from our own families – secrets that were not talked about, relatives who were shunned for ‘shaming’ the family. These attitudes are dying away, and that is good. We are less concerned with keeping up appearances, and more focused on ensuring children feel loved and supported.

Yet, there will always be conflicts in family life. Differences of opinion can arise over beliefs or choices, sometimes causing immense hurt on both sides. Often these disagreements are between generations. Parents who have raised their children in the faith can feel hurt when a son or daughter drifts away, or decides not to pass on the faith to their own children. Grandparents often carry this burden too.

Some conflict is unavoidable as we navigate these situations, but we have a choice – do we allow anger and hurt to shape our interactions with loved ones, or do we listen with respect and try to understand and find common ground? Perhaps these inevitable conflicts are what Jesus refers to in today's Gospel – father divided against son, mother against daughter. It's a surprising statement given his usual focus on peace. But then, following Jesus is not a smooth path. Peace can be hard-won, particularly in families where there are so many different personalities and opinions. Let us pray for wisdom and patience to navigate the tougher times.

Alpha – Coming Soon to Tramore!

Join us this autumn as we begin a new parish programme to explore our faith, to share testimonies and to experience fellowship as a community of believers in Jesus Christ. The Alpha programme has already been running very successfully in various local parishes throughout the diocese, including St. Paul's, St. Joseph and Benildus, and Dungarvan. It is an 11-week programme, and sessions are held once a week. Each session begins with the group sharing a meal together, followed by a short DVD presentation on a particular topic of faith, and afterwards there is time spent discussing the video in small groups. It is especially effective for those who are not regularly practicing their faith, and for those who are not church-goers. Alpha has proved to be a helpful tool throughout the world in bringing people back to their faith, and leading them to discover more deeply the person and presence of Jesus Christ in their lives.

Alpha will begin here in Tramore in late September – more details to follow. If you would like to join (it is free!), please sign up on the sheet in our parish office, so that we have an idea of numbers. Please keep the group in your prayers, too, that it may bear fruit in the lives of many people.

CONGRATULATIONS

...to all our students who received their leaving certificate results this week.

Now the panic is over, choices are made whether to take a year out, to go to college, or to repeat. Whatever your decisions are, may the Holy Spirit continue to guide you at this time. Well done on all your achievements!
