World of love

In a family so much love is lavished on the new-born first child, and you hear them saying that's the end of freedom now for a good few years. Or the grandchildren come and there's the babysitting. Life deepens love and narrows our freedom. Jesus says elsewhere that love is the door to eternal life. In laying down life for a friend, the cross was a narrow door.

Real love means little things a lot of the time, and with God it means time now and then dedicated to prayer and to worship, as well as loving our neighbour.

Love demands a lot as well as giving a lot. With the people we most love, we are most vulnerable and they can bring the worst and the best out in us.

The sick child, the elderly in the family, those in prison or in a difficult marriage call on our love, as does a husband or wife needing a lot of care in illness or old age. There is a special love shown by volunteers in our country and the developing world. The grandchild who is isolated and lonely calls too on our love. This is the world of love, the only world worth sacrificing anything for.

The condition for entering is not where you come from, whether you are first or last, whether you wear the right clothes or even turn up on time – the condition is that, in the way of the living God, you hear the word of God daily and live by it faithfully.

Lord, may your will of love be done on Earth.

Donal Neary S.J.

 Alpha – Coming This September

Our new Alpha programme is about to begin in the next few weeks, and we have already received a number of enquiries from people interested. Many thanks to a number of parishioners who have volunteered to help facilitate the programme. We hope to finalise a start date in the coming week or so but we expect Alpha to begin in the last two weeks of September. The venue will be O'Neill's. The course is designed to invite people to rethink their faith in Jesus Christ, and to get a conversation going among like-minded people on the importance of faith in our lives today. Each session begins with a shared meal, followed by a short DVD presentation on a particular topic of faith, and concludes with time for discussion in small groups. Places are limited, so book early. You can leave your name on the sign-up sheet in our parish office. Remember to keep the group in your prayers!

The 7.30am Mass will resume on Monday September 2nd
