Living the Dream

Some of us may hear today's Gospel reading and think: 'Well, what is so wrong with that?' In a lot of ways, the actions of the man in the parable make sense. He has had a good harvest (presumably a result of his own hard work) and is making provisions for the future – building bigger barns to store his crops, ensuring he has enough to live on for the coming years, allowing himself to enjoy the fruits of his labour. He is living the dream! He is a good businessman, he has achieved security in life, so why shouldn't he 'eat, drink, have a good time'?

Yet God brands him a 'fool.' Why? As it turns out, the man is to die very soon. He certainly can't take all his treasure with him. He has not thought beyond his own enjoyment. He is living only for this life, without any thought for the bigger picture. As Jesus warns: 'a man's life is not made secure by what he owns, even when he has more than he needs.' Furthermore, there is no indication that he considered sharing his wealth with anyone else. His focus is 'me, me, me.' He comes across as selfish and greedy. What does he have to show for his life? Yes, he had a good time, but has he helped anyone else, or left the world a better place?

We do not need to renounce all our worldly possessions or stop planning for the future, but we do need to keep things in their proper perspective.

'If you read history, you will find that the Christians who did most for the present world were just those who thought most of the next.'

CS Lewis

Lord Jesus, we can think of your people down the ages who have travelled over life's stormy sea and, in dying, have reached the harbour of peace, light and happiness.

As you calmed the sea, we ask you to be with us and bring peace in our lives each day, because the boat of our own lives is small and the ocean is very large. As you have set our course, we ask you to steer our lives towards the shore of everlasting life. Bring us, at last, along with all who are dear to us, to the quiet rest that we seek, where you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

"As one of the youngest Planned Parenthood clinic directors in the nation, Abby Johnson was involved in upwards of 22,000 abortions and counseled countless women on their reproductive choices. Her passion surrounding a woman's right to choose led her to become a spokesperson for Planned Parenthood, fighting to enact legislation for the cause she so deeply believed in. Until the day she saw something that changed everything." Please call 051-383855 to book your tickets. Event will be at St. John's Pastoral Centre on Thursday 8th August @ 7.45pm
