All are invited to the Banquet

In today's Gospel, Jesus uses the image of a great banquet to explain God's vision for our world. He speaks of a place where those who consider themselves entitled to the highest seats at the table take the low seats. He urges us to invite the poor, the lame and the blind to this celebration. Jesus encourages us to turn the world upside down in a reversal, an upheaval, where the preferred option is for the poor and those considered least in society.

Today is an important day, as we begin the Season of Creation (from 1 September until the Feast of St Francis on 4 October). Pope Francis asks all Christians to embrace this season in prayer, in living more sustainably and in raising our voices in the public sphere. We are invited to think more deeply about what is happening at present to the Earth, the environmental destruction which now threatens our world, our common home. The theme this year is 'The Web of Life.' The most vulnerable among us are suffering most deeply as this web of life begins to unravel. Our faith calls us to respond to this crisis with urgency. Let us hear the Gospel message today, where we are called to consider those on the margins, including those most at risk from climate change, and let us commit to working towards a world where all are seated at the banquet.

Alpha – Nearly There!

Our new Alpha programme is about to begin in the next few weeks, and we have already received a number of enquiries from people interested. Many thanks to a number of parishioners who have volunteered to help facilitate the programme, and who recently attended a training day in Cork.

The course will commence on Wednesday 18th September at 7pm, at a venue to be confirmed next week.

The course is designed to invite people to rethink their faith in Jesus Christ, and to get a conversation going among like-minded people on the importance of faith in our lives today. Each session begins with a shared meal, followed by a short DVD presentation on a particular topic of faith, and concludes with time for discussion in small groups. Places are limited, so book early. You can leave your name on the sign-up sheet in our parish office. Application sheets are also available in the porches. Remember to keep the group in your prayers!

The 7.30am Mass will resume Monday September 2nd

Please remember in your Prayers.....

Diocesan Family Day at Mount Melleray Abbey

Wonderful news!

A diocesan family day will be held on Sunday 29th September at Mount Melleray. This is a result of the tremendous success of the day that was held last August in preparation for the World Meeting of Families.

We wish the very best of luck to all the children returning to school in the next few weeks.

Many of our young people are embarking on a new phase of life at this time of year. Some perhaps leave home for the first time. We wish them well and offer them the following words of wisdom.

Blessing Of Solitude

May you recognize in your life the presence, power and light of your soul

May you realize that you are never alone, that your soul in its brightness and belonging connects you immediately with the rhythm of the universe.

May you have respect for your own individuality and difference.

May you realize that the shape of your soul is unique, that you have a special destiny here, that behind the facade of your life there is something beautiful, good and eternal happening.

May you learn to see yourself with the same delight, pride and expectation with which God sees you in every moment.

Rosary Procession

The Annual Diocesan Rosary Procession in honour of Our Lady's Birthday will take place on Saturday September 8th at 7pm leaving Ballybricken Green to the Cathedral of the Most Holy Trinity, Barronstrand St. All are very welcome to attend

GDPR - General Data Protection Rules

As most of you are aware new Data Protection Rules have come into effect, and we at Holy Cross & Carbally Parish along with everyone else must comply with these rules.

There will be a number of changes to requests for Baptism, Confirmation and Marriage Certificates, coming into effect in the next few weeks and for general requests for information.

We would ask you to bear with us as we comply with these new rules and please understand that these changes are being made because they are now the law.
