Reflection for 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Deserving our rights

We often say that people don't deserve welfare or food if they don't work. We can be stingy in judging what others deserve and need.

Jesus has a new way. We deserve our rights even when we do the least. The denarius was a day's wage, enough to live on. There are certain rights we all have – to have food and a job are two of them. These people wanted to work. We are rewarded by God for who we are, not for what we do.

Jesus' vision is that everyone deserves to earn enough to live on.

To believe in a God who is an unconditional Friend, is to have the most liberating experience that one could imagine. On the contrary, to live in the presence of an avenging and threatening God could change us into the most dangerous and self-destructive neurotics. We need to learn not to confuse God with our own narrow and stingy plans. We sometimes wish to distort God's unfathomable goodness. (Jos Anthony Pagola).

That's the way the kingdom of God grows. It grows within us in thanks and sharing. That's what we do at every Mass. Success for Jesus is not the amount we do, but that we do things with a full heart.

Fr Donal Neary, S.J

Church Full: I never thought I'd see the day when we would have to put up CHURCH FULL notice at the Church door. The attendance at the 10.30am Sunday Mass is forcing us to 'close' the doors. This can be avoided if some of the usual attendees at this mass could attend any of the other masses. There is plenty of room at the 7.30pm, the 8.30am, and 12 noon celebrations.

Give it a thought PLEASE.

Prayers for Vocations

"The life and death of each of us has its influence on others; if we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord, so that alive or dead we belong to the Lord".

(Romans 14: 7)

If the Lord invites you to follow Him in humble obedience as a priest or in the consecrated life, how will you respond? If the Spirit is prompting you to know Christ as a priest, or in the consecrated life, speak to your local priest, or call your Diocesan Vocation's Director, or email the National Vocations Office on info@vocations.ie

If you pick me up.

Take me home. Thank You.
