The World Day of Migrants and Refugees – Sunday 27 September 2020

The Church has been celebrating the World Day of Migrants and Refugees (WDMR) since 1914. It is always an occasion to express concern for different vulnerable people on the move; to pray for them as they face many challenges; and to increase awareness about the opportunities that migration offers.

For 2020, Pope Francis has chosen the theme "Forced like Jesus Christ to flee", with a focus on the need for the pastoral care of internally displaced persons.

This year's World Day of Migrants and Refugees will be marked on Sunday 27 September.

Message of Pope Francis for the 106th World Day of Migrants and Refugees

The theme chosen by the Holy Father for the 106th World Day of Migrants and Refugees is "Forced like Jesus Christ to flee". In his message the Holy Father says:

"Displaced people offer us this opportunity to meet the Lord, "even though our eyes find it hard to recognize him: his clothing in tatters, his feet dirty, his face disfigured, his body wounded, his tongue unable to speak our language" (Homily, 15 February 2019). We are called to respond to this pastoral challenge with the four verbs I indicated in my Message for this Day in 2018: welcome, protect, promote and integrate. To these words, I would now like to add another six pairs of verbs that deal with very practical actions and are linked together in a relationship of cause and effect:

- You have to know in order to understand.
- It is necessary to be close in order to serve.
- In order to be reconciled, we need to listen.
- In order to grow, it is necessary to share.
- We need to be involved in order to promote.
- It is necessary to cooperate in order to build.

A big Congratulations to all the Children who received the sacraments of First Holy Communion and Confirmation over the last two weekends and again this weekend.

Michael, Gabriel, Raphael, Archangels – (John 1:47-51) 29 September

The three names of the Archangels end with the word 'EL' which means God. God is inscribed in their name and nature. They are God's messengers. They bring God to us.

They remind us that God is closer to us than we are to ourselves.

Angels always address us: Do Not Be Afraid.

St Jerome – (Luke 9:57-62) – 30 September

Jerome centred his life on God's Word. Jerome said: 'Ignorance of the Scriptures is ignorance of Christ.' By carrying the Word of God within us, we also carry eternity. Jerome said: 'Seek to learn on earth those truths which will remain valid in heaven.'

Pope's Intention for September

Universal: we pray that the planet's resources will not be plundered, but shared in a just and respectful manner.
