The 'I' word!

We know this story well. The most important word in it is 'I'. Jesus identifies himself with the people he is talking about. He doesn't say people were in prison and you visited them, or sick or naked. He says I who am in prison, sick or naked. It's even more than being a brother or sister of Jesus. He identifies with each of us especially in need. Created as we are in the image of God, Jesus sees right through us to see God. God is the divine life of God in each person.

That makes the difference. We don't help the needy person only because he or she is needy, but because each is in the image of God and Jesus sees him or her and says 'that's me.'

This can be a programme for life. For the young – can you make a decision for your life that includes deep care from your love of those in need? For those in their busy lives already and who have chosen their way – how can you show deep care for those in need. For the elderly – can you pray for those in need each day and encourage those more active to care for them?

*Did you feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, welcome the stranger, care for the sick and visit the prisoner?
Lord Jesus may your kingdom come –
The reign of equality, justice, peace and love.*

An honour for the Diocese

A special scholarship has been initiated in honour of Monsignor Michael Olden in recognition of the immense contribution he has made to St Patrick's College, Maynooth. The scholarship will be awarded annually to a postgraduate student, lay or cleric. The first bursary has already been awarded to a lay doctoral student completing a PhD in ecclesiastical history.

'During this November, we remember our dead in a special way in our homes'

As we cannot attend the usual remembrance services that would be in our Churches you may create a remembrance space at home, with your memory cards or a name list. Find a space where you can honour them with a candle and gather to pray the Evening Prayer of Remembrance together.

*In the rising of the sun and in its going down,
we remember them.*
*In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,
we remember them.*
*In the opening of buds and in the rebirth of spring,
we remember them.*
*In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer,
we remember them.*
*In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn,
we remember them.*
*In the beginning of the year and when it ends,
we remember them.*
*When we are weary and in need of strength,
we remember them.*
*When we are lost and sick at heart,
we remember them.*
*When we have joys we yearn to share,
we remember them.*
*So long as we live, they too shall live, for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.*

'They go no further from us than God, and God is very near'.
