29th Sunday in Ordinary Time Reflection

Servant of All

The gospel this week is a story of ambition, even cloaked in good intentions. A mother wants her sons in the best place, and they pick up that ambition from her. The apostles see James and John as wanting to be tops with Jesus. He accepts all this, but let them know that to be close to him means to suffer with him, and to be a servant.

Many times we see this in the gospel: giving a cup of cold water was what a servant did, washing the guests' feet was what a servant did. Jesus brought service even further – to serve like him was to serve God his Father, because that was what his mission on earth would be.

We hear often of the servant church – it means that the community of Jesus' followers are at the service of people, to make better conditions of life, to live and share with compassion in the hardships of others, to care for the earth and protect it. This service of people is the service of God. In that mission Jesus would be misunderstood, and eventually put to death.

Even after death we see him as a sort of servant of the apostles – reaching out to them to share his joy and consolation. He would be the one to walk with them in their doubts, fears and disappointments. He seems to be a servant also in his risen life.

*Think of the day ahead or the week,
and offer yourself in the service of the Lord
Lord may I serve you and be with you in all I do and care for.*

John McEneaney's Ordination Sunday October 24th 2021

We wish our very own John McEneaney every blessing and good wish as he makes the final preparations for his ordination to the priesthood next week, Sunday October 24th, which is Mission Sunday. John will be ordained a priest in the Cathedral of the Most Holy Trinity, Barronstrand St. Waterford by Bishop Cullinan at 3pm. There are a number of places available for those who would like to attend; you can simply come along on the day, and places will be allocated on a first-come, first served basis. The following day, Fr. John will offer his First Mass of Thanksgiving here in Holy Cross Church, Tramore, on Monday 25th at 3pm, and all are welcome.

After Mass, Fr. John will give his first blessings to all present. There used to be an old saying that a blessing from a newly-ordained priest was worth two from a bishop! We pray for John and his family in advance of this momentous occasion, and for the new appointment that he will receive in the coming weeks.

Dear Friends. As I prepare for ordination, I thank you for your prayers, support and encouragement over the past few years. This has been invaluable in helping me to listen to God, and in following His call in my life. It has been a privilege to assist as deacon at the altar in Tramore, where I had previously served as an altar server. I thank the priests of Tramore, past and present, for this opportunity, while recognising that my faith and calling to the priesthood has been nurtured by attending the Holy Mass. I will be ordained on Mission Sunday, the 24th of Oct. at 3pm in the Cathedral of the Most Holy Trinity Waterford, and I will celebrate Mass in Holy Cross Church, Tramore, on Monday the 25th of Oct. at 3pm. You are most welcome to attend.

Deacon John McEneaney

Leave it to Him

'God knows what my greatest happiness is, but I do not. There is no rule about what is happy and good; what suits one would not suit another. And the ways by which perfection is reached vary very much; the medicines necessary for our souls are very different from each other. Thus God leads us by strange ways; we know He wills our happiness, but we neither know what our happiness is, nor the way. We are blind; left to ourselves we should take the wrong way; we must leave it to Him.'

St John Henry Newman

The Gardaí in Tramore would like to ask that people enjoy Halloween responsibly. Be respectful of not only your own property but your neighbour's property as well
