Reflection for the 21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

World of love

In a family so much love is lavished on the new-born first child, and you hear them saying that's the end of freedom now for a good few years. Or the grandchildren come and there's the babysitting. Life deepens love and narrows our freedom. Jesus says elsewhere that love is the door to eternal life. In laying down life for a friend, the cross was a narrow door.

Real love means little things a lot of the time, and with God it means time now and then dedicated to prayer and to worship, as well as loving our neighbour.

Love demands a lot as well as giving a lot. With the people we most love, we are most vulnerable and they can bring the worst and the best out in us.

The sick child, the elderly in the family, those in prison or in a difficult marriage call on our love, as does a husband or wife needing a lot of care in illness or old age! There is a special love shown by volunteers in our country and the developing world. The grandchild who is isolated and lonely calls too on our love. This is the world of love, the only world worth sacrificing anything for.

The condition for entering is not where you come from, whether you are first or last, whether you wear the right clothes or even turn up on time - the condition is that, in the way of the living God, you hear the word of God daily and live by it faithfully.

*Lord,
may your will of love
be done on Earth.*

Publication of Synthesis of the Consultation in Ireland for the Diocesan Stage of the Universal Synod

Irish Bishops' Conference have published the National Synthesis of the Synodal Process on www.synod.ie.

You can access the document on <https://synod.ie/wp-content/uploads/2022/08/National-Synthesis-17-50-Fri-12th-August-.pdf>.

The Synodal Process has been conducted across the Church in Ireland from Autumn 2021. The publication the National Synthesis is the fruit of a wide-ranging process of listening and consultation drawing on the syntheses produced by the 26 dioceses in Ireland, as well as those submitted by religious congregations and other interested groups.

Small Businesses

We pray for small and medium sized businesses; in the midst of economic and social crisis, may they find ways to continue operating, and serving their communities

Tax Rebate on Weekly Contributions

Sincere "Thank You", to all who have returned the CHY3 tax Certs, which were sent out to qualifying parishioners in recent weeks. For anyone who has not got round to returning them yet, it is not too late! Please return in envelope provided to Fr Richard or drop in to the Parish office.

The Parish benefits under a Scheme of Tax Relief for Eligible Charities.

If your contributions are over €250 in a year and you pay tax you qualify.

It would be very beneficial for our parish funds if you sign and return the Enduring Cert, which has been sent out in the last weeks to all eligible contributors.

The Enduring Cert covers 5 years so we can claim for previous years. There is no cost to you.

We hope everyone who qualifies will return the form in envelope provided to the parish office as soon as possible so we can proceed with the claim.

Also if any details have changed please amend so that we can update on our Parish system.

We thank you most sincerely for your continued support. All details are treated in the strictest confidence.
