Reflection for the 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

On the side of the poor (first reading)

Isn't it still the same as the first reading has it? The poor get the worst of things, and are diddled; it's quite contemporary. It is about greed and fooling the poor; raising the shekel - like raising the exchange rate so that the poorer countries get less dollars for their kwacha and rupees; golden handshakes for people whose greed is palpable and whose attitudes have left so many people hard up; money well protected and taxes avoided if not evaded. Our waste of food could feed so many. People are poor not through their own fault but because they are neglected.

How many of the poorer schools are becoming less well off, with resources such as special needs assistants taken away? Hospital care is getting worse, as people wait for prolonged periods for treatment. Mostly the poor will first suffer from economic mishap. God hates this - he hates mistreatment of his people. Jesus raged against the exploitation of the poor.

We pay tribute to the people who work for the poor and needy - in the parish; in diocesan and other social agencies and our volunteers at home and abroad. Can we vote for public representatives who care for the poor?

The call to the Church is to care as Jesus cared; we need the harsh words of the first reading sometimes to waken us up, and the story of Jesus to make sure we don't sleep again.

Pope Francis said:

*'if investments in banks drop a little,
it's a tragedy!*

But if people are starving, if they have nothing to eat, if they are not healthy, it does not matter!

*This is our crisis today,
Lord, may your kingdom come*

Prayer of Intercession at Harvest Time

We pray now for areas of our world where hatred and wars make the efforts of daily life even more difficult. May all hear and respond to the words of Jesus, who spoke of peacemakers being blessed and of treating our neighbours as ourselves. Lord hear us.

Singing through our Liturgical Seasons

Our music workshop for choirs will take place on Saturday 1st October. Registration will begin at 10am with the workshop starting at 10.30am. It is envisaged that it will end at 1pm approximately. The fee for the workshop is €10 which will include the music handout and light refreshments. To book, please email marydee@waterfordlismore.ie or call 051-874199.

The theme for the workshop is "Singing through the Seasons – A collection of Common Music for the Liturgical Seasons". – Advent, Christmas, Ordinary Time, Lent, Easter.

The workshop will be presented by Karen O'Donovan and Ciaran Coll. Both Karen and Ciaran are well known for their work in Liturgical music. They recently facilitated very successful workshops at the Irish Church Music Summer School in Maynooth. As we meander our way back to parish life after the restrictions of the last few years, this is an ideal way to re-invigorate your choirs and offer them the facility of continuous formation which is so important for all of us.

Lectio Divina, hosted by the Apostles of the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Lectio Divina is a time of reading the Sunday gospel, prayer and sharing, followed by conversation over a cuppa. As always, come whenever you can. Bring a friend. We look forward to sharing the Good News together.
