Reflection for 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Servant of All

The gospel this week is a story of ambition, even cloaked in good intentions. A mother wants her sons in the best place, and they pick up that ambition from her. The apostles see James and John as wanting to be tops with Jesus. He accepts all this, but let them know that to be close to him means to suffer with him, and to be a servant.

Many times, we see this in the gospel: giving a cup of cold water to a needy person was what a good person did, "washing the guests feet" was what a servant did. Jesus brought service even further – to serve like him was to serve God his Father, because that was what his mission on earth would be.

We hear often of the servant church – it means that the community of Jesus' followers are at the service of people, to make better conditions of life, to live and share with compassion in the hardships of others, to care for the earth and protect it. This service people is the service of God. In that mission Jesus would be misunderstood, and eventually put to death.

Even after death we see Jesus as a sort of servant of the apostles – reaching out to them to share his joy and consolation. He would be the one to walk with them in their doubts, fears and disappointments. He now seems to want to be a servant of others through us also in his risen life.

*Think of the day ahead or the week,
and offer yourself in the service of the Lord to someone needy
Lord may I serve you and be with you in all I do and care for.*

Mission Sunday

Today, World Mission Sunday is a special day that unites Catholics worldwide in prayer, solidarity, and support for the Church's mission efforts.

This year's theme, chosen by Pope Francis, is rooted in the Gospel of Matthew: "Go and Invite Everyone to the Banquet," reflecting the inclusive and urgent call to bring God's love to everyone. Join us in this universal mission to spread the Gospel and invite all to experience the joy of Christ's message!

A second will be taken up today at all Masses. We thank you for your support.

Exploring Priesthood – Open Day

Pallottine College – Thurles – Sunday 10th November

PERHAPS YOU'RE LONGING FOR SOMETHING MORE IN YOUR LIFE?

This "exploring priesthood" open day is an opportunity for Catholic men (18 and over) who would like to find out more about the ministry and life of a diocesan priest, how to discern if you have a calling to be a priest and what is involved in seminary formation. It will provide you with a safe and confidential space to explore, along with others who are at the same stage as yourself.

WHEN AND WHERE?

The open day will take place in the Pallottine College in Thurles on Sunday 10th November between 11 am and 5 pm. There is no charge for attending. To attend you must register
