Reflection for 5th Sunday of Easter

The glory of God in St John's gospel is another word for his love.

We have types of love, and for most of us we find it in our lasting friendships, our spouses, our partners, our family – those without whom life would be so much the poorer.

Real love transforms. Opens the heart more and more. We get out of ourselves in real love – caring, forgiving, getting over things. In all sincere and outgoing love between any two people, God is present. Love brings God alive in us. Not the love that is in name only and uses each other. But love that sees the other as more important than myself.

We say, 'love made him'.

Parents say – I hope they find friends who will bring the best out of each other'. Mauriac writes- "To love someone is to see a miracle invisible to others."

The example of Jesus can help us at times when it can be hard to see goodness even in those we love.

Real love heals. Only love makes the best out of the worst. In concentration camps the survivors were often those who had love to remember or go back to. Even when things go very badly in life, the forgiveness of love can help us move forward.

Lord, help me to be truly grateful for love in my life.

Pope's Monthly Intention for May

For working conditions

Let us pray that through work, each person might find fulfillment, families might be sustained in dignity, and that society might be humanized.

MASS TO MARK THE 25th ANNIVERSARY OF THE ORDINATION OF THE LATE FR COLM O'BRIEN

This year marks the 25th Anniversary of the Ordination to the Priesthood of a remarkable, humble, prayerful and genuine priest, who sadly died at the young age of 36 in 2009 after serving as curate in both SS Peter & Paul's Clonmel and Holy Cross Tramore. Fr Colm O'Brien was ordained to the priesthood on 4th June 2000 by Bishop William Lee in his home parish of St Paul's in Waterford.

A way of celebrating and thanking God for Fr Colm's life and priesthood, Bishop Cullinan will celebrate a Mass of Thanksgiving for the Priesthood of Fr Colm, on what would have been his 25th Anniversary, on Tuesday 3rd June at 7.30pm in St Pauls Church, Waterford. Everyone is most welcome to come to the Mass and give thanks to God for the impact Fr Colm made in those years, and to pray for the happy repose of his soul.

For the Jubilee Year of Hope Bishop Cullinan invites the people of the Diocese to visit various pilgrim locations from Ardmore to Mount Melleray, from Lismore to Waterford.

"Pilgrim Path Passports" are available in all porches to record people's personal journeys to special places around the Diocese

Tramore Hospice Support Group

Our next Coffee Morning will be held in the Community Care Centre Tramore on Thursday morning 22nd May at 11.00 o'clock. There will be a raffle also with very nice prizes. All monies raised here will be donated to Waterford Hospice. All welcome.
