Sr. Clare Crockett

Clare Crockett, was a Derry girl, born and raised. A typical young person in so many ways, by her own admission, she was during her teenage years, a "wild child". She had her dreams and aspirations, and for a while they were focused on fame. She dabbled in acting and TV presenting, even turning down an offer to work on the well-known children's channel Nickelodeon. In the year 2000, attending a retreat for young people, she attended the Good Friday liturgy. But when she kissed the feet of the Lord, it was a changing moment in her life. She realised "He died for me. He loves me!".

One year later, Clare joined the Servant Sisters of the Home of the Mother, who have members in our Diocese, eventually taking her religious vows. For fifteen years, she worked in Spain, America and Ecuador. In her written words, she described her faith in God and following Him, as "All or nothing". In April of 2016, while in Ecuador, Sr. Clare Crockett gave her all when she was tragically killed along with fellow Sisters protecting children in their care, during an earthquake. She was thirty-three years old – the age of Christ at His death. A few weeks ago, the Church recognised her remarkable faith declaring Sr. Clare, a 'Servant of God' - the first step on the road to Sainthood.

WIKTORIA AND JÓZEF ULMA

THE MERCIFUL SAMARITANS FROM MARKOWA

The Ulma family of Józef and Wiktoria Ulma with Seven Children were a Polish Catholic family in Markowa, Poland, during the Nazi German occupation in World War II who attempted to rescue Polish Jewish families by hiding them in their own home during the Holocaust. They and their children were summarily executed on 24 March 1944 for doing so.

On 17 December 2022, Pope Francis declared the entire family to be martyrs and determined that they would be beatified on 10 September 2023, a celebration that was held in their native Markowa. The beatification of the Ulma family is unique within the Catholic Church, as they are the first family to be beatified together in the history of the Church in the 21st century. After some news reports suggested that the beatification would represent the first beatification of an unborn or pre-born child, the Dicastery for the Causes of Saints released an official clarification on 5 September 2023, stating that "this [unnamed] child was delivered at the time of his mother's martyrdom" (based on the evidence that his remains were found emerged from his mother's womb in the original grave), and he was therefore included with the other martyred Ulma children, under the catholic doctrine of baptism of blood.

Their feast day is celebrated on 7 July (day of the anniversary of Józef and Wiktoria's wedding). The remains of the Ulma family are placed in the side altar of the Saint Dorothy's Church in Markowa, Poland.

The Relics of the Blessed Ulma family will visit the Holy Cross Church, Tramore on Saturday 10th May for the celebration of the Eucharist at 7.30pm.
