Reflection for the 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Strange ways

A fellow said – 'bad enough he was in the pub, but now I have to be beside him at Mass'.

Said jocosely, but the point is that everyone is invited to the banquet of Jesus like the gospel today. We never know who we might meet at Mass.

Jesus has strange ways of looking on whom to invite and who are the most important.

There were strict codes of place-names and seating at this type of party. Jesus was going to cut through these. He also had upset things earlier by healing a very sick man on the Sabbath. He started talking then about who to invite.

There was no pecking order at his invitation. The narrow door of last week has been pushed wide to let them all in.

The community of Christ doesn't admit of differences that put us down. He was always saying this, and saying it to the proud and haughty. For others, life had taught them to be humble and they could probably enjoy this feast.

Humble people are grateful for small and big things; they pray often and know their need for prayer; they know they have faults and are no better or worse than most, and know they need God's mercy; they love children because they are childlike at times, and they know they are not humble all the time. They don't take themselves too seriously and are compassionate to the faults of others. They know who they are – in one way the least of all, but always loved, always forgiven, always a child of God.

Lord, teach me to know myself well,
so that I can better know your love.

Back to School

We wish all the children returning to school after the summer break the very best of luck and congratulations to all students who are receiving exam results at this time.

Many of our young people are embarking on a new phase of life at this time of year. Some perhaps are leaving home for the first time.

We wish them well in all their endeavours

Prayer for a new School Year

God of wisdom and might,

We praise you for the wonder of our being, for mind, body and spirit.

Be with our children as they begin a new school year, Bless them and their teachers and staff. Give them strength and grace as their bodies grow; wisdom and knowledge to their minds as they search for understanding; and peace and zeal to their hearts.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Pope's Monthly Intention for September
For our relationship with all of creation

Let us pray that, inspired by Saint Francis, we might experience our interdependence with all creatures who are loved by God and worthy of love and respect.
