26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

St. Carlo Acutis (1991-2006)

Carlo Acutis was born on May 3, 1991, in London, to Andrea Acutis and Antonia Salzano. From a young age, Carlo displayed a profound love for God and the Church that inspired his parents. "Before Carlo's birth, I was really caught up in the culture of our time," his mother says. "I was a prisoner of everything that is relative and limited." But "Carlo showed me how to live in my century while turning toward eternity." His family later moved to Milan, Italy, where Carlo's passion for computer programming blossomed alongside his deepening faith.

Carlo's life was characterized by a remarkable integration of faith and reason. Despite his young age, he exhibited an exceptional intellect and a keen interest in understanding the mysteries of technology and Catholicism. He spent many hours honing his skills as a computer programmer while remaining committed to prayer and devotion. Carlo is often referred to as the patron Saint of the internet.

At the age of seven, Carlo began participating in daily Mass and developed a deep love for the Eucharist. "My secret is to contact Jesus every day," he said. He also prayed the rosary often, demonstrating his profound devotion to Jesus' Mother, the Blessed Virgin Mary: "The Virgin Mary is the only woman in my life."

One of St. Carlo's most significant contributions to the Church was the creation of both a portable exhibition and a related website cataloguing Eucharistic miracles from around the world. He was able to catalogue 187 Eucharistic miracles during a period of two-and-a-half years. Through his expertise in computer programming, Carlo sought to share the profound reality of the Real Presence with others, inviting them to encounter Jesus in the Eucharist. "The Eucharist is the highway to heaven," he often said. "When we face the sun, we get a tan... but when we stand before Jesus in the Eucharist, we become saints."

Carlo Acutis died on October 11th, 2006, from leukaemia. He serves as a model for young people seeking to navigate the complexities of the digital world while remaining faithful to the Gospel. His life reminds us that holiness is attainable for all who seek to follow Christ faithfully, regardless of age or vocation.

Following his death, Carlo appeared in a dream to his mother. He told her she would become a mother again. On the fourth anniversary of his death, at the age of 44, she gave birth to twins, Francesca and Michele, in what many consider a miraculous event attributed to his intercession.

Carlo Acutis was canonised on September 7th, 2025, along with Saint Pier Giorgio Frassati (1901-1925)

May they continue to inspire us all, regardless of our age.

Irish Conversation – Tramore's Ciorcal Cómhra

Tá sé ar ais arís! After the summer break, Tramore's Ciorcal Cómhra (Irish conversation group) is ready to get going once more. We'll be gathering in Tramore Library on Thursday evening, October 9th 2025 from 7pm to 8pm and everyone is welcome. The Ciorcal is always full of life and laughter. It's not about perfection, it's about participation where you will have the chance to speak, to listen and to soak up a lively Irish conversation in good company. It is saor in aise and all ages, all levels and all backgrounds are welcome, from beginners who are dipping their toes in to regulars who just love the chance to speak as Gaeilge. You can come on your own or bring a friend as there's always someone ready to chat and you'll find plenty of encouragement too. For more details, call Tramore Library at (051) 849 594 but there's no need to book as you can just come along on the night. We'd love to see you there.
