15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Prayer reflection by Michel de Verteuil

Lectio Divina with the Sunday Gospels – Year A

www.columba.ie

Lord, forgive us that we do not give Jesus' message a chance to go deep into our society:

- we choke it with many compromises;
- we imply that it wasn't really meant to work,
- that it was only for children, youths or older people.

As a result, it never gets a chance to fall on rich soil, to touch the generosity and idealism of people, and so it does not produce the crop it was meant to produce in society.

We pray today for those who work the land, that they may sow like the sower in the parable,

- not mean, calculating or arrogant,
- but trusting the land and respecting its wildness so that it may produce abundant crops.
