Fr. Tadeusz & Fr. Issac - Mission Sunday

Friends, we celebrate Mission Sunday this weekend. The theme for this year is 'One in Christ, United in Mission.' It is a moment to think of all who work on the Missions and offer them support. It is also a time to give thanks for Ireland's and our local Parishes rich missionary spirit.

As a country, countless numbers of our sons and daughters have devoted themselves to work in other parts of the world as religious and volunteers. For Tramore/Carbally, Dunhill/Fenor, we have a great pride in our neighbours' children who have and are working as Priests and Sisters in many parts of the world. How proud we are of them.

However, mission has changed drastically in recent years. At one time, we sent our people to the missions, but now the mission is coming back to us. Ireland itself has become mission territory. How grateful we are to have Fr. Tadeusz and Fr. Issac among us. We know and love them so much that we see them as one of our own. That is a great compliment to their faith and work, but also to their personalities, and how easily they move among us. But let us not forget that they are missionary Priests, belonging to Missionary Congregations. Their Congregations have gifted them to Ireland to minister, and we are the recipients of that gift.

We give thanks for their wonderful presence and ministry among us and on this Mission Sunday, we thank them, pray for them, and remember all their colleagues, and every missionary at work across the world.

"Well done, good and faithful servant." (Mt. 25:21)

Akarapet School Project – East Pokot

Following the generous support of Tramore parishioners for the Bee Project, Fr Tom Hogan is coordinating a new project this September for Akarapet School, where two classrooms are under construction. The school currently has 34 pupils, with another 34 due to start in January. The aim is to raise €3,000 to provide 23 locally made desks, permanent water storage, water for the building work, and help complete and equip the classrooms.

For anyone who would like to support the project, a contribution of €20 is suggested, with all contributions gratefully received.

Thank you for your continued support and generosity.
